

WOMEN'S VOICES NOW MEDIA TRAINING

YOUTH PROGRAM - OPPORTUNITY FOR SPONSORSHIP

Women's Voices Now (WVN) is a non profit organization that advocates for women and girls rights using social-impact film to change media and culture. Our Youth Media Training Program promotes the voices and leadership capacity of young women from underrepresented communities by teaching digital media and storytelling skills to affect social change. This program puts girls in front of and behind the camera and trains them to be the media and change makers of tomorrow.

Last summer, 19 young women were selected to participate in this free intensive program which taught social-impact documentary filmmaking, leadership, critical thinking skills, and community.

We are looking for sponsors who can help us make this year's program possible. With your support, your organization has the opportunity to affect not only the lives of these dedicated young women, but support the creation of media that has the capacity to affect social change.
