ABOUT THE EVENT

Align your brand with a meaningful, life-changing experience!

The 7th annual Girls' Voices Now (GVN) public premiere screening event will take place from 7-9pm, and will include a Q&A and dessert reception with our young filmmakers. This event is open to friends, family members, film industry professionals, and the Women's Voices Now community of local supporters, board members, and partners. We are expecting 250-300 audience members.

ABOUT GIRLS' VOICES NOW

Girls' Voices Now is our youth development program that empowers girls ages 14-18 from under-resourced communities of Los Angeles through filmmaking and advances gender and racial equity in the film industry. Working in teams, our participants create short, powerful, 5-12 minute films about the changes they wish to see in their life, communities, and beyond. They cover subjects that affect youth, like self-esteem, stereotypes, immigration, mental health and more. To date, their 25 films have been seen by over 1.8M online viewers.

OUR MISSION

Women's Voices Now is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization using film to drive social change that advances girls' and women's rights globally.
