ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

The Women's Voices Now Film Festival promotes emerging female filmmakers making documentary films that advocate for women's and girls' rights around the world. Winning filmmakers receive awards, cash prizes, mentoring and networking opportunities.

The Festival kicks-off with a virtual event on March 26th, 2024. All pre-selected films are available for viewing online between March 26 and April 30, 2024. Our live Award Ceremony takes place on April 25th.

On September 12th, 2024, we organize an in-person screening event in Los Angeles of the film that won the most prestigious award: the Leslie J. Sacks Grand Prize. Audience members, industry professionals, and the filmmakers will be able to connect around women's rights, and the power of film to create change.

To date, we have received 1070+ submissions from 85+ countries and awarded $130,000 in cash prizes.

OUR MISSION

Women's Voices Now (WVN) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization using film to drive social change that advances girls' and women's rights globally.
