

My name is Nattaly Gomez and I can be really good at asking people how they are like I am really caring and respectful. I come from a Mexican family who are really fun to talk to and be around I have my mother in my life my grandma and my little sister who have helped me when I need someone to talk to and they are really caring I really love them they make me feel happy about everything they support me when i need that support. I'm a really caring person and when i see something that's not ok I have something to say. I like to write and I was in a poetry slam I can write a lot and I performed in front of people this year and it was really fun I loved it, it was a new experience.
